

Of SPECIAL INTEREST to All Shoppers

A dress goods sale of unusual merit—Every piece of woolen fabric cut in price from 10 per cent to 33 1-3 per cent—A special sale of Fancy Silks at 20 per cent less than usual price—A great deck-clearing of women's and misses' suits in the ready-to-wear section. Any suit at one-half regular price. Some of them selling at less than half.

Our Grand Fur Exposition and Sale ends today at 9 o'clock p.m.

Those who have not attended the fur exposition in our Fur Section should do so today, as there will be no chance to view the magnificent thirty thousand dollar assortment after tonight. Scores of women were surprised and greatly interested in what they saw yesterday and many took advantage of the low prices which prevail. This enormous showing offers the very newest styles in desirable fur pieces. The two fur representatives from New York City will take this beautiful stock away from Salem immediately, so see them before the store closes today.

If you know of the superior quality of the optical work I am doing—of the splendid satisfaction my glasses are giving—of the many, many I fit perfectly, even after other opticians and oculists fail to give satisfaction, you would certainly come to me for glasses. Over 31 years' experience; over 3000 references. Satisfaction guaranteed.
I feel that my long experience, better facilities, more modern equipment, enable me to make better glasses at lower prices than anyone else.
The great success of my Toric Kryptok lenses has caused many inferior imitations. You are absolutely sure of the genuine Kryptok when you come to me.

I Do Not Use Any Drops Nor Drugs

Positively no better glasses made anywhere, and few the equal. My glasses satisfy you because they must be perfect before they leave my office. The SATISFACTION of those I have served is your guarantee that I will serve you satisfactorily.
All broken glasses replaced while you wait.

Sheriff Quine, of Douglas county, has informed Sheriff Esch that a man who is believed to have stolen the loot which was also stolen by three Greeks from the Reed & Peterson mercantile store at Turner, was killed recently by a train near Glendale, Or. The man answers the description of the person who followed the three Greeks who are being held for trial here for robbing the store, into a briar patch and coming out with a bundle under his arm. A bundle resembling that which was seen at Turner in the dead man's possession was kicked out of a car in Glendale and several knives recognized as those stolen from the Turner store were found therein.

Fourth Period.
The fourth period opened with Guernsey gaining 10 yards on a forward pass to Knowles. Another forward pass, however, was intercepted, and Harvard got the ball on its own 27-yard line. Brickley went through center for four yards, and then Mahan punted to Yale's 25-yard line. Ainsworth and Wilson registered gains of five yards each and repeated. A series of punts followed, Harvard gaining possession of the ball on Yale's 47-yard line. Mahan plunged through the Yale line for 10 yards and Brickley went through for nine more, Brickley and Mahan, by turns, carried the ball to Yale's 17-yard line. Here the Yale stands started shouting "Hold 'em." Here, however, the good right toe of Brickley dropped a goal from Yale's 20-yard line.

A few minutes later, after an exchange of punts, Mahan caught the ball fair on the 45-yard line. Brickley attempted a placement goal, but failed. The game ended without further scoring.

At the meeting of the Business League last night Mr. Sargent tendered his resignation of the treasurer ship of the league, owing to his being compelled to be absent from the city a large portion of the time, and with it a request that it take effect immediately. On motion the resignation was accepted, and on motion that his successor be elected at once, D. W. Eyre, of the United States National bank, was unanimously chosen for the place.

HARVARD IS WINNER

Hardwick ran the ball to Yale's 31-yard line and then Bradley bucked the line for five yards more. Brickley was unable to gain, and the ball went to Yale on downs.

Knowles' Big Gain.
Knowles and Wilson circled the Harvard ends for seven yards. Then Knowles and Mahan exchanged punts, Yale finally getting the ball on her own 28-yard line. Knowles skirted the Harvard end and made a sensational run of 35 yards before he was downed by Brickley. Wilson was unable to register a gain, but Ainsworth carried the ball through for 18 yards to Harvard's 32-yard line. Guernsey missed a drop kick from Harvard's 38-yard line, and the period ended.

Brickley kicked off to Yale's 28-yard line in the third period. Knowles skirted the right end and ran through the entire Harvard team to the crimson 38-yard line. Again Guernsey failed to dropkick a goal. The ball was put into play on Harvard's 20-yard line. Brickley plunged through the Yale line for 20 yards. Mahan punted. Dana replaced O'Brien. Guernsey punted back to Mahan to Harvard's 30-yard line. Mahan plunged through the Yale line for 30 yards and Dana gained ten more. By a series of rushes Mahan and Brickley carried the ball to Yale's 35-yard line, and Brickley sent another goal spinning through the Yale posts.

Pendleton returned Knowles' kickoff from the 20-yard line. Then Dana went through the Yale line for four yards. Mahan carried the ball to Yale's 43-yard line, and Brickley broke through for a run of 35 yards.

Brickley then dropkicked a goal from Yale's 25-yard yard line. Guernsey then kicked off for Yale. Souey relieved Trumbull and Cowen relieved Hitchcock. Neither of these substitutes were able to register gains, however, and the period ended with the ball to Yale's possession, on Harvard's 40-yard line.
